Plot Summary

"The Lore" offers a gripping narrative that captures Robbie's determination, struggles, and triumphs. It explores his evolution from a small-town surfer to a contender in Ireland's pro surf circuit.

The film beautifully contrasts the rugged Irish coastline with Robbie's personal journey, showcasing the thrill of the surf and the depth of his passion.

STORY / NARRATIVE

PRODUCTION PLAN

Locations

Key locations include New England surf spots and iconic surf destinations across the coast of Ireland.

Shooting Schedule

Filming will span 8 months, capturing Robbie's training, competitions, and the breathtaking Irish surf locations. We plan to document the changing seasons and moods of the Irish sea,

DISTRIBUTION & MARKETING

A person wearing an orange jacket and carrying a surfboard is walking on a beach. In the background, there are several cows grazing in a field under a clear sky.

Distribution Strategy

We intend to submit "The Lore" to renowned film festivals, aiming for recognition and potential distribution deals. Partnering with surf-related brands ensures a built-in audience among surf enthusiasts.

Marketing Plan

Engaging social media campaigns, exclusive behind-the-scenes content, and promotional events with sponsors will boost visibility and engagement. Premiere screenings in surf communities and coastal towns will create a buzz and attract local surfers.

IMPACT

"The Lore" showcases the power of determination and the universal dream of chasing one's passion. Robbie's journey will inspire both surfers and non-surfers alike. Through the lens of Robbie's story, the documentary highlights the importance of perseverance and courage in the face of adversity.
